January/February 2012

CONCERT: Matthew Fishteyn

Friday, January 13, 7 p.m.

A teenage prodigy who performs on both guitar and keyboard, Matthew Fishteyn's vast repertoire ranges from jazz and classical to rock and roll, ragtime and flamenco. Come listen to and be astounded by his outstanding musical skills with original pieces and standards.

Matthew, a gifted 17-year-old, began playing piano more than 10 years ago and more recently began studying the classical and flamenco guitar. A graduate of The Special Music School at the Kaufman Center in NYC where rigorous academic and music educations are combined, Matthew also composes music for piano and guitar and received 3rd place in the Young Musicians Competition in Wagner College in 2007. www.youtube.com/user/MatthewMatician

AARP Tax Assistance Program

South Country Library is pleased to partner with AARP in offering their free Tax Assistance Program again this year. This is a free, volunteer-run tax counseling and preparation service, available to seniors (age 60 and over) and to low- and middle-income taxpayers. The service is intended to provide basic tax help and is by appointment only. Again this year due to a continued shortage of volunteers, a very limited number of appointments will be available. For this reason, South Country Library patrons with valid library cards only will be permitted to participate. If you do not have a card, or your card has expired, please obtain one at the Library's Circulation desk before registering. Counselors will be at the Library on Tuesdays between 10 a.m.-2 p.m. by appointment only. Beginning Monday, January 9th you may call or visit the Reference Desk at 286-0818 to make an appointment.

AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY MONTH CELEBRATION

Poetry Event: Deborah La'Sassier

Wednesday, February 15, 7 p.m.

"The best way to describe my poetry is: I write about reality - not always with a happy ending, just real life. My poetry is also about healing. In order for colors to fade, we have to learn to swim above the rain." Deborah La'Sassier is a wife, mother, author, poet, winner of the 2001 International Poet of Merit award, East Patchogue resident, and Bellport High School graduate. On Wednesday, February 15th at 7 p.m., Deborah will discuss and present her work for the South Country community. Refreshments will be served following the event.

Concert: Shenole Latimer & Friends

Friday, February 17, 7 p.m.
